Why Sponsor the WIH LeadHERship Summit?

The 6th Annual LeadHERship Summit is bigger than ever! Hosted by the national organization, chapters from across the US and Canada come together for this full day of networking, education, growth and mentorship. The Summit features women from the healthcare industry who have excelled in their careers. Thought-provoking panel discussions and break out sessions allow the audience to look within themselves to be the change that promotes women in leadership, and challenges the individual to eliminate boundaries put on their professional growth.

Women in Healthcare reaches over 8,000 women in the healthcare industry, and the LeadHERship Summit attracts hundreds of women from across the US and Canada. With over 90+ organizations represented, the Summit brings together perspectives from all companies and systems in healthcare. An attendee mix of women – 63% being Director level and above – who are leaders in their field, key decision makers and influencers - women with significant influence or decision-making power that look to WIH for:

// Mentorship // Education // Networking // Community // Self //

Women in Healthcare is the only membership organization that encompasses women from the entire continuum of healthcare and is dedicated to the advancement of the individual and the industry.

LeadHERship Sponsors not only gain organization recognition, expand their network, and engage with top level executives, but also gain the opportunity of professional development and education.

By partnering with Women in Healthcare your organization will:

- » Be recognized as an industry partner for gender advancement
- » Develop strong relationships with leading healthcare industry professionals
- » Grow the individuals in your own organization through their participation and improve business results.

About the Round Tables:

Day one of the LeadHERship Summit is a series of moderated round tables around organizational barriers that impede the advancement of women in healthcare.

Women in Healthcare brings together our National Board, Advisory Board, Industry Council, and healthcare executives from around the country and Canada to brainstorm tactics for breaking down these barriers.

Round Tables are 50-60 of the most forward thinking minds, coming together to make organizational change.

NOTE: This event is invite-only, and tickets are not available for purchase except through sponsorship.
